- D - Paragraph XI - (page 8, part II) Industrial Arts 453 and 461 are yet to be approved by the Graduate Council.
 - (page 9) Industrial Arts 321 - the former number should be 265.

III. Communications Received.

- A - From Mr. Williams - Report of waivers for July 1967 - August 1.
- B - From Mr. Heller - Additional information for student eligibility to enter 300 or higher numbered courses.

(Agenda Item 67:58) - July 31.

C - From Mr. Manbeck - Credit for college Entrance Examination Board Tests. (Agenda Item 67:61) - August 1.

IV. Adjustment of Degree Requirements (Agenda Item 67:54).

A) A motion was made to amend the motion made last week (reference paragraph III (A)). It was to move Theatre into Group B from Group A. The vote was taken on the amendment and it passed, with voting as follows:

Aye: Cloud, Connelly, Cooper, Garner, Hart, Lowell, Pollard, Riegel

Nay: Smith

The vote on the amended motion was taken and it passed with voting as follows:

Aye: Connelly, Cooper, Garner, Hart, Lowell, Pollard, Riegel

Nay: Cloud, Smith

This action approves the following:

Page 71 (1966 catalog) Humanities

The statement relative to the Humanities is to include three groups of subjects:

Group A - Literature, Philosophy, Speech*
Group B - Art, Dance*, Music, Theatre*
Group C - Foreign Languages

*Added subjects - only courses approved by the Council on Academic Affairs on recommendation of the appropriate department are acceptable.

B) The motion of last week passed. Voting was as follows:

Aye: Cloud, Connelly, Garner, Pollard, Riegel

Nay: Cooper, Lowell

Present: Hart

Absent: Smith

This action approves the following:

The last two lines in the requirement relative to Humanities are to be omitted entirely.

- C) This motion passed by unanimous vote of all who were present. The following was approved:

Page 72 (1967 catalog) Mathematics

Leave the first paragraph as it is and replace the second paragraph with the following:

A student who presents an acceptable unit in mathematics more advanced than the first two years of college preparatory mathematics may be exempt from this requirement. Algebra, plane geometry, solid geometry, and trigonometry are considered college preparatory courses; courses of newer types now offered in some high schools may be ruled by the Department of Mathematics to be college preparatory mathematics.

- D) This motion passed with voting as follows:

Aye: Cloud, Connelly, Garner, Hart, Lowell,
Pollard, Riegel

Present: Cooper

Page 102 (1966 catalog) Humanities

Reduce the requirements for the B.A. degree from 24 quarter hours to 20 quarter hours.

E) This motion passed with voting as follows:

Aye: Connelly, Cooper, Garner, Hart, Lowell,
Pollard, Riegel

Nay: Cloud

Page 102 (1966 catalog) Humanities

The first line is to read:

This area comprises art, music, literature,
and philosophy, and such courses from the fields of dance, theater, and speech as may be designated by the Council on Academic Affairs on recommendation of the appropriate department.

F) This motion passed by unanimous vote of all who were present. This action approves the following:

Reduce the requirement for mathematics for the B. A. degree from 8 quarter hours to 4 quarter hours.

In the text under this requirement, leave the first paragraph as it is, but alter the second paragraph
to read as follows:

A student who presents one or more acceptable units in mathematics more advanced than the first two years of college preparatory mathematics may have the mathematics requirement reduced by 4 quarter hours for each acceptable unit. Algebra, plane geometry, solid geometry, and trigonometry are considered college preparatory mathematics. Courses of newer types offered in some high schools may be ruled by the Department of Mathematics to be college preparatory mathematics.

- G) By common consent it was agreed that the above actions are to take effect for students who are admitted after September 1, 1967 and that these changes may be made retroactively to students admitted prior to September 1, 1967, who have not yet graduated, upon their request for modification of their graduation requirements. For this purpose the entire set of actions is considered as a single package, that is, the student must accept all of the modifications or none.

IV. Proposal for Revision of the Freshman English Program.

Messrs. White, Steinmetz and Palmer were present to discuss this proposal. No action was taken.

- V. For filling vacancies on the Council for the summer, sincere appreciation is extended to Miss Hart and Mr. Riegel.

The meeting adjourned at 12:00 with the announcement that the next meeting would be held on September 7.

Maurice W. Manbeck
Secretary
